

PhD Day. Critical Legal Conference

University of Exeter, Peter Chalk Centre, Collaborative Lecture Theatre (LT)

Programme

10:00 – 10:30

Registration with tea, coffee, and pastries

10:30 – 11:00

Networking session

11:00 – 13:00

Workshop: Taking an Evidence-Based Approach to Social Change

13:00 – 14:00

Lunch break

14:00 – 16:00

Workshop: Activism and Academia – Finding Your Voice and Place

16:00 – 16:15

Break

16:15 – 17:45

Documentary Screening: Breaking Social

<https://www.breakingsocialfilm.com/about>

18:00 onwards

Informal pub outing

Practical Notes

- If you are arriving late, please don't worry. We understand that many of you are travelling from different places and countries. Tea and coffee will be available until 11:00, so please arrive when you can and make yourself comfortable.
- All food served during the PhD Day and the wider conference will be vegetarian.
- If you noted any allergies on your registration form, labelled options will be provided.
- There is no need to bring anything with you for the workshops.

Workshops Facilitator

Dr Morgana Lizzio-Wilson

Lecturer in Social, Political, and Feminist Psychology

Dr Lizzio-Wilson's research explores how progressive social change can be achieved and sustained. She examines both the conditions that encourage people to support and join collective efforts for change, and the backlash movements that resist it.