

McDermott Will & Emery

Law undergraduate essay competition 2023-2024

Fantastic opportunity to win a week's internship with international law firm McDermott Will & Emery!

The International Law Book Facility (ILBF) essay competition 2023-2024 is sponsored by McDermott Will & Emery. The competition is open to all undergraduates studying law at UK universities. The prize for the winning entry will be a week's work experience with McDermott Will & Emery in the summer of 2024.

The competition will be launched on 29th November 2023 at 6pm by The Rt. Hon. the Baroness Carr of Walton-on-the-Hill, the Lady Chief Justice of England and Wales.

Speakers at the event include Fiona Rutherford, Chief Executive of JUSTICE, and former Director of Policy at the MoJ.

The launch will be live streamed and you can register to attend online here:

https://mwe.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_GNtzTWMbSGeWwMlfrzyfrg

Tune in to the launch to find out about the topic for this year's competition and the question to be answered.

The ILBF law undergraduate essay competition is an opportunity for all undergraduates currently studying law at university in the UK to think about a key issue. The research required and the ideas formulated will be invaluable preparation for future interviews, and there is the chance to win an internship with McDermott Will & Emery. Find out more here: https://ilbf.org.uk/ilbf-student-essay-competition/

Key dates to watch out for:

29th November: launch of the competition at 6pm

December: Q and A with the recruitment team at McDermott Will & Emery

January 2024: online panel discussion on the essay topic hosted by LexisNexis

29th February at 4pm: deadline for submission of entries

4th April: announcement of the winning essay.

Follow the ILBF on LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook and YouTube for regular updates on events, more details about how to enter the competition and short films to inspire you to take part.

The ILBF supports the rule of law and access to justice for all through sharing legal knowledge. Since the charity's foundation in 2005, the ILBF has distributed over 80,000 legal textbooks to more than 250 organisations in 56 countries. Our books support law students, teachers, lawyers and judges.

www.ilbf.org.uk